THEN REVIEWED THE VETERANS.

Acted as Escort - Number of Reunions. Auxiliary Organizations Hold Meetings and Parades—The Business Transacted.

BUFFALO, Aug. 25.—President Mc-Kinley rode at the head of the line in the G. A. R. parade as far as the reviewing stand, where he took the seat previously assigned to him and reviewed the veterans as they passed by. The president occupied a carriage with General Rogers of Buffalo and was escorted by Commander-in-Chief Clark-

A notable feature of the encampment was the arrival of President McKinloy. accompanied by Secretary Alger and Governor Black of New York. A banquet to the president last evening and the parade of the naval veterans and ex-prisoners of war were also great features. During the day there were mental and company reunions. Last

The Naval Veterans' association and the ex-Prisoners of War association, tegether with the survivors of Eric county regiments and other organizations, composed the Grand Army con tingent of the parade. The naval vet erans were the uniform of the United States naval service and made a splen-did appearance. As they rolled through the streets in the swinging gait of menof-warsmen the crowd cheered them to

The ex-prisoners of war from the rank and file of the G. A. R. wore the uniforms of their respective posts, and on each coat was fastened a badge bearing the name of the prison in which the wearer had been confined. As the names of the Andersonville, Libbey, Salisbary, Belle Isle, Florence, Castle Thunder and other places of historic horror were read the cheers be-

The National Association of ex-Prisoners of War met in annual convention with Commander Charles F. Sheriff of Pittsburg in the chair. The attendance was the largest since the organization of the association.

The report of the adjutant general showed 64 local associations, with a membership of 1,982, and 702 individual members, a total membership of 2,204. There was a substantial cash balance in

A resolution was adopted urging the secretary of the navy to accept the plans of Baerer & Web of New York for a statue of the late Rear Admiral

A resolution approving the project of the late General William B. Hazen to establish a sanitarium on Castle Pinckey island in Charleston harbor was unanimously adopted.

Another fight arose over the report of the committee on the revision of the constitution, which proposed to amend the constitution regarding classes 2 and 8, which consist of sons, grand sons and associates of the veterans, so that these might be expelled from the national association. A lengthy and somewhat animated discussion ended in tabling the report.

The National Association of Army

BANQUET TO M'KINLEY.

Brilliant Affair Given by Columbia Post of Chicago-The President's Warm Greeting to Hanna-The Senator Given an Ovation by the Crowd,

BUFFALO, Aug. 25 .- From the mo ment that the special train that bore the president and his retinue to the city arrived until he retired last night there was one glorious and spontaneous demonstration. When the Niagara hotel was reached the president made multitude

Shortly after 5 o'clock Columbia post dressed in fatigue coats and white duck trousers, arrived at the hotel and acted as escort to the president to the Elliott building, where the post entertained the president at a banquet.

At the guest table sat Commander C H. McConnell of Columbia post, toast-master of the occasion; President Mc-Kinley, Commander-in-Chief T. S Clarkson, Archbishop Ireland, General Russell A. Alger, Governor Frank S. Black, Chaplain-in-Chief Mark B. Tay lor, ex-Postmaster General Wilson S Bissell, Governor Hazen S. Pingree of Michigan and many others.

When an elaborate menu had been discussed to the satisfaction of guests the toastmaster called for Governor Frank S. Black, who extended a welcome for Columbia post to President McKinley.

At 8:45 o'clock Senator Mark Hanna, who had just arrived in the city, came into the banquet hall. His entry was noted by applause at the further end of the hall and as the proceedings paused. and moved along the hall to meet him. There was a shout of applause as the two men clasped hands and the presi dent's left hand went upon Mr. Hanna's shoulder. Both took their seats amid applause. Mr. Hanna had to hold a Closely following Mr. Hanna's entrance it was announced that the president, desiring to hear Archbishop Ireland and other speakers, had decided to make a brief visit to some of the camp fires and then return. He left, ccompanied by Commander-in-Chief

Clarkson. While Mayor Jewett was speaking the president returned and for a few moments pandemonium reigned supreme, somebody yelling "wheat $1.03, silver 40c" a cry that was taken up and repeated again and again.

When Mr. Jewett had finished bi address President McKinley was introduced, and for fully five minutes it seemed as though the roof would have to fall or the side walls bulge with the roars of applause and greeting. The president made a patriotic speech in which he referred eloquently to the re-

Up the Gems. LITTLE ROCK, Aug. 25.-New discov eries of valuable deposits of pearls in lakes and rivers in Arkansas have added greatly to the excitement already existing over similar discoveries, and thousands of people are wading through the water in different parts of the state searching for the precious gems. The Republican harmony which puts Senalatest and most sensational discoveries tors Quay and Penrose in what is re-were made in the Arkansas river and garded as undisputed control of the the creeks, takes and bayous near Little Rock, where pearls have picked up ranging in value from $10 to 8800 each.

Hundreds of people are working the Saline, White and other rivers and many valuable finds have been re-ported. Additional discoveries were nade on the Fourche river and hundreds of people are swarming to that stream. A staff representative of The Arkansas Gazette, who has spent much time in investigating the matter, says there are 57 streams in the state that are rich in pearls of large size.

WHEAT STILL LOWER. Bears Have an Inning and Force Down

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—The bears had an inning in wheat. The September lace, daughter of Chief Justice Melville option at one time sold 9 cents below W. Fuller, is dying of appendicitis at the high point. December beat this by a cent and a quarter. The closing figures show a loss for the day of 51/2 in September and 51/2c in December. Heavy and long-continued liquidation was the cause of the break.

New York, Aug. 25.—The disastrons result of operations by eleventh hour bulls was demonstrated in the action of the wheat market. Failing to secure the necessary assortment of bull news these belated holders punctured the bull bubble and prices fell with a crasito a point over 8 cents a bushel below the top notch for the year, reaching the lowest figure when December, after having opened at $1.00%, sold at 95%c tempt to Run the Mines Will Prove Futile and That the Strikers Will Win Labor Representatives Meet.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 25.—Coal operators of the Pittsburg district are going to operate their mines at once. Within a week notices will be posted in conspicnous places about the various pits of the district notifying the strikers that they can return to work if they care to Such an announcement will be given in due time, and if it does not bring the miners to their work employes will engaged from other parts, Such is the policy of the operators of the Pittsburg district, as a result of the conference with the head officials of the United Mine Workers of America No compromise was reached and ther was but one thing left for the min owners-to start their plants withou the aid of organized labor. From th standpoint of the two sides of the con troversy the status of the whole situation up to date is as follows:

President Ratchford of the Unite Mine Workers of America says tha the last straw was broken at the con ference; that the operators cannot d anything but give in to their employes that the strike will be kept up until the wages demanded, 69 cents per ton.

The official statement of the operators is a diplomatic supplement to the strike. It is intended to give a who e lot of information, but few facts can be found in any of the paragraphs. I tells of the meeting and its sad ending, without further parleying.

The conference ended in failure. The miners' officials would not receive from their original position to settle b arbitration and to start the mines n the 69-cent rate. The operators offers to divide the difference between the and 69-cent rates, making the price which the mines should be started 615 cents, but this was rejected, and then additional propositions were made. On was to start the mines without fixin any price for 50 days, and then pay th rate agreed upon by a board of arti-

This was also refused by the miners' representatives, as they said they had been fooled too often to trust the operators again. They declined to work month, giving the operators the output for that length of time without knowing what wages were to be paid

A proposition was then made to oper-ate the mines for ten days without fixing a price and allow a board of arbi-trators to fix the price for that time. President Ratchford insisted that pothing but a 6%-cent rate could possibly be accepted. The operators were firm, but the miners were equally determined, and every argument of the mineowners was met by the miners leaders. Neither side would concede another point, and it was decided to end the conference. Representatives from 85 labor organi-zations in Western Pennsylvania met last night at Knights of Labor hall and peaceable manner and a general strike. if the injunction of the courts relative to the miners' encampments at Turtle Creek are continued.

Miners Out at DuBois, Pa

DuBois, Pa., Aug. 25,-The Lancaster and London mines, at this place, have quit work, notwithstanding that they lecided at a meeting held to continue The agitators from the Pittsburg region had been working unceasingly for a week to get the men out, and have suc ceeded, in the face of the fact that a majority were opposed to striking.

QUAY AGAIN IN CONTROL.

Colonel Clayton McMichael Nominated

For Treasurer of Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 25.-For the first time since the control of the Republican organization in Philadelphia was wrested from Senator Quay by the defection which prevented the nomination for the mayoralty of Boies Pen-rose, now United States senator, a regular Republican convention representing every faction in this city has nominated with practical unanimity a pronounced Quay partisan by naming Colonel Clayton McMichael, proprietor of the Philadelphia North American and a director of the Associated Press. leaders in Eastern Pennsylvania, as the candidate for city treasurer.

The senators from Philadelphia and members of congress interested had united in naming Colonel McMichael to succeed the Democratic postmaster in Philadelphia and he said that he entered the contest for the city trensureship only because the friends of al factions united upon him to perfect the Republican state organization.
